

Using Assessment Essentials On a Tablet Device

When using Assessment Essentials on a tablet you can navigate to an introduction for each theme by tapping twice on the relevant section of the lifecycle.

You can also navigate using the  button in the top right of the screen as well as the search bar to look for specific information.

Using Assessment Essentials On a Tablet Device

Within individual topics, information is located in accordions which can be opened and closed by tapping their titles.

raising awareness about the need to anticipate the needs of disabled students and promotes the development of Inclusive Practice.

- Information about Learning Contracts
- Designing assessment for inclusivity
- Adjusted marking
- Accessible learning and assessment materials
- Alternative forms of assessment for examinations

This button will return you to the top of the page where you can access the menu and search functions.

Supporting Information

Resources

Learning Contracts Database

Disability Support team

Inclusive teaching and learning at Plymouth University

When viewing information within the themes, scrolling down will allow you to view supporting information and resources. Tapping on any of these links will open the resource in a new tab.

